Activity 1: Science

Bouncy Egg

I have an egg-citing Science experiment for you to do. You will need some help from an adult as you will need to boil an egg. The rest of the instructions for this experiment are on the attached sheet.

Once you've completed your experiment and had fun playing with your bouncy egg, I want you to write a paragraph to explain how you felt about your bouncy egg. Does it amaze you that it's possible to make an egg bouncy? What did you do with your bouncy egg? Also, can you draw and annotate a diagram of how you made a bouncy egg? Good luck and have a cracking time.

Activity 1: Science

Activity 2: Art

Instructions

Step 1. Gather your supplies.

Step 2.

Place your card stock on a piece of wax paper, which will help protect your table. Coloring your paper with oil pastels, making sure to press really hard. Use bright colors to create any pattern to design you choose. We made rainbow stripes.

Step 3.

Continue coloring, adding many different colors, to cover the entire paper.

Step 4.

Add some black poster paint to a small bowl and pour a tiny amount of dish soap. The soap will help the paint stick to the oil pastels. Mix it together using a foam brush and begin painting it over your oil pastel picture.

Step 5.

Cover the entire paper and allow to dry. It's okay if you see some of the pattern lightly under the paint.

Step 6.

Using a Skinny Stick, start scratching a design into the paper. The black paint will scratch off leaving the bright oil pastels underneath. We picked a space theme design, since the background is black but you can pick any theme or design that you like.

Step 7.

Experiment with different ways you can use the Skinny Stick. Use a corner to create thin lines or turn to use the flat edge for broad, thick lines. Scratch off larger areas to fill in sections with bright colors. Once complete, show it to a friend!
